'86 - '87 COBRA STORY

FOUNTAIN LAKE HIGH SCHOOL
ROUTE 7, BOX 220
HOT SPRINGS, AR 71901
VOLUME 48

PURPLE PRIDE and GOLDEN GLORY THE '87 COBRA STORY

How many times have you heard that your school days are the best years of your life? And how many times have you laughed in the face of the person who said that? We all joke around about the burdens of school, but the truth is, without it we would not only be ignorant to the problems we all face in life, but also to the excitement and friendships we encounter everyday as we absorb our education.

In the 1986-1987 school year, excitement filled the air. The ballgames, the classrooms, the halls during break and the canteen at lunch all provided the opportunity for students to express their excitement athletically, academically and socially. The seniors began the year with senioritis and their excitement only contributed to the '87 Cobra Story of Fountain Lake High School.

To all who have supported Fountain Lake and to all who have made the excitement and friendships, the 1986-1987 Purple Pride annual staff presents the '87 COBRA STORY.

Kathy Gladden

pretty for your concern and support
dedicate the
'87 COBRA
To You.

To the Seniors, Mrs. Gladden, you are priceless. Your encouragement and guidance throughout the year will lead to our success in the future.

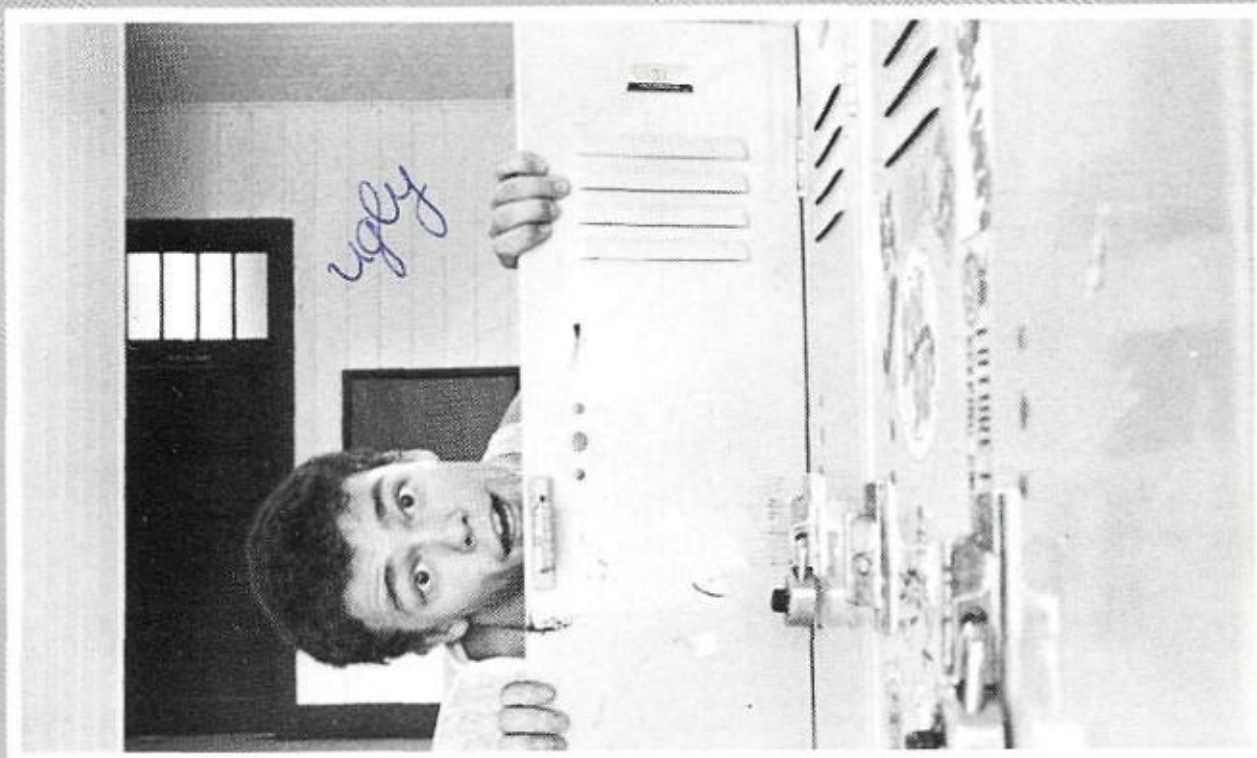

To the underclassmen, your thought and time means more than you could imagine. Mrs. Gladden, your concern and support mean love to all who come to know you.

STUDENT LIFE

Passing grades, parties, and pizza. Three essentials of a student life. The purpose of school attendance is passing grades. If you don't pass, you don't graduate. Passing calls for celebration — as in P-A-R-T-Y. The morning after demands energy and that is provided by the leftover pizza. After that, it's back-to-class-to-pass.

FRIENDS

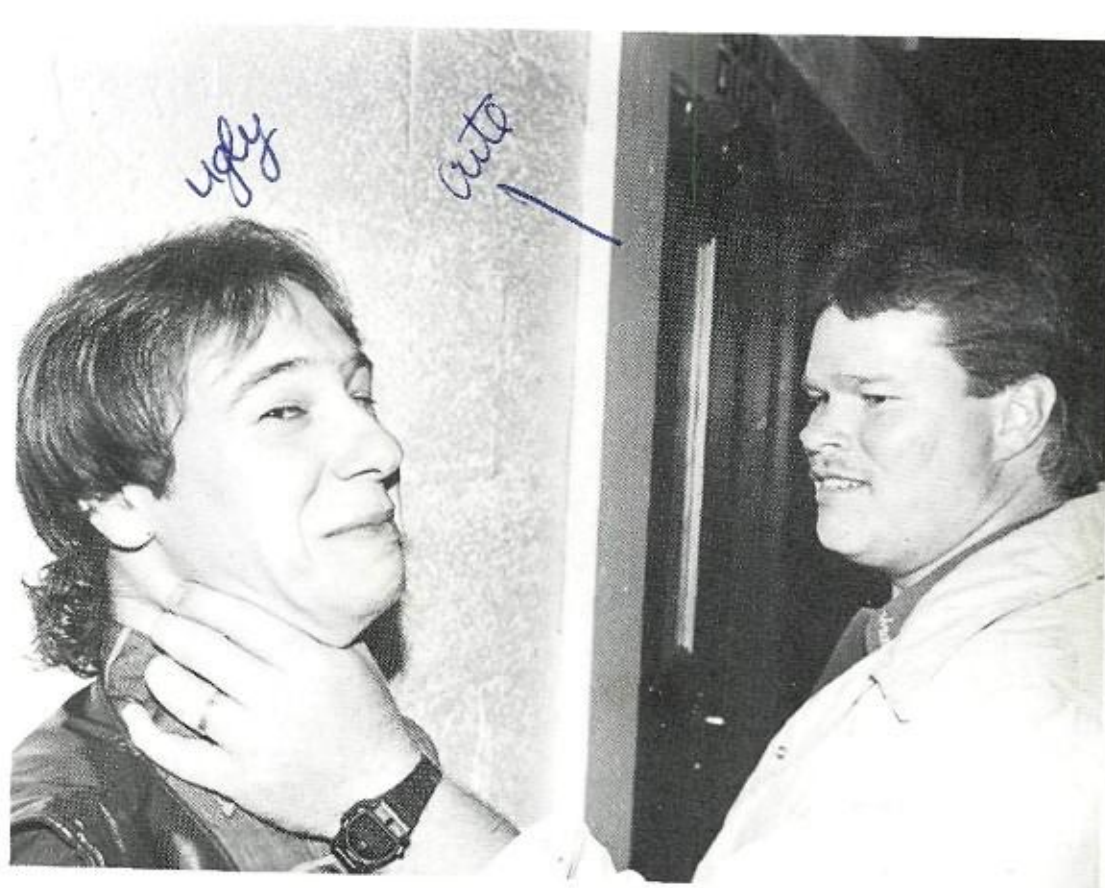

Friends come in all shapes and all sizes — tall, short, big, and small. But size really isn't the issue; being a good friend is. As you can tell, true friendship is displayed in the pictures below.

1. Robbie and Mandy can't get through the day without a friendly hug.
2. With friends like Tamra and Kendra, you'd smile.

3. Angy and Lori are friends 'til the end.
4. Would you trust Brett, Timmy, and Jimmy to be your friend?

5. A group of friendly juniors eat the tasty lunchroom food.

1. Aren't we cute?
 2. Some friends are just plain crazy, Wesley Yates is a good example.
 3. Ronny, Jennifer, Michelle, and Mike enjoy skipping class.

4. Mr. Pennington sure knows how to pick his friends.
 5. Journalism class as it really is.

OOH! Did you see that guy over there? Regina sure did!

Did everything come out all right?

TAKE IT AND DIE!!

Pairs and Spares

Like every normal high school, we've had our share of pairs and spares. Being a pair was definitely in. Being a spare was definitely not. We had a little bit of both. While pairs worried about fighting, spares worried about finding someone to fight with.

Smile, people wonder what you've been up to!

You aren't going to make ME smile!!

Style

Many different styles have come and gone since fashion began. Some people dress to impress their friends; some people dress to be different. Mini-skirts may come and go, but sweats, t-shirts, and Levis will always be in style.

They think they're in style???

David Bain models leatherwear for "The Rolling Stone."

Monica Vaughn poses for the latest issue of Sports Illustrated.

BOOKED or BOOKED?

 (below) Darrell James finds out what happens when you speed through a school zone.

Under the Influence of:

CURRENT EVENTS

Vanna White represents success in the 80's. In what other era could a woman make a half a million just for knowing the alphabet?

"Oh Vanna, pick me a letter!"

PLATOON

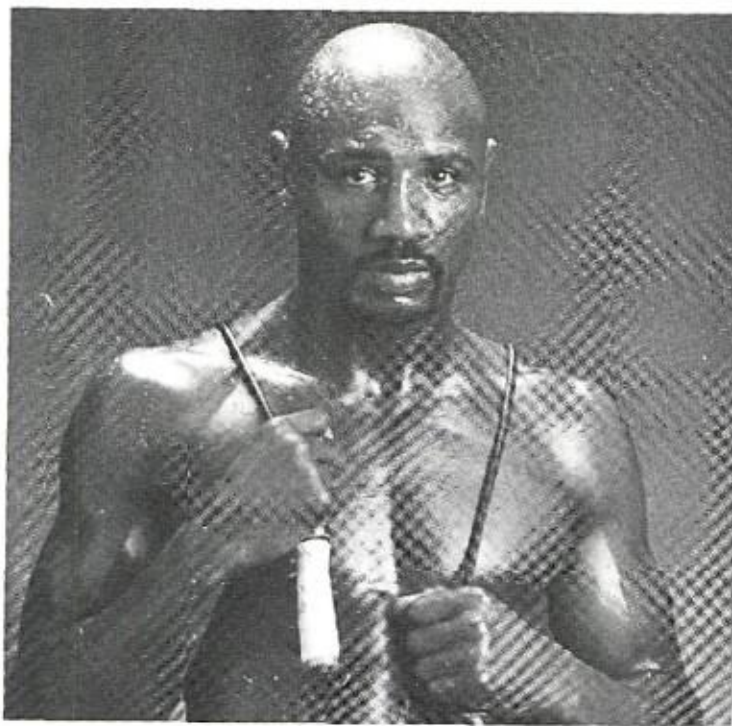

The hottest singer of 1986-87 would have to be Bon Jovi. He toured the world, won nearly every girl's heart, and became popular with songs like: "Living on a Prayer," "Never Say Goodbye," and "You Give Love a Bad Name."

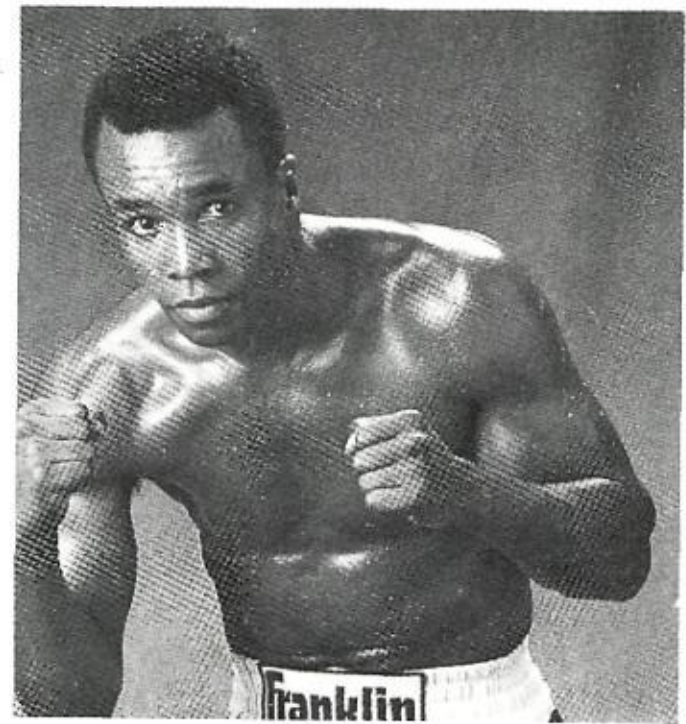

Iran Plays the Hostage Game

After three long years, Skipper Dennis Conner and the crew of the Stars and Stripes finally retrieved the American Cup. Australian Skipper Iain Murray said they were a little behind and made a few mistakes, but ran a good race.

It took place April 6, the richest prize fight in history. Marvelous Marvin Hagler lost his Middle Weight title to Sugar Ray Leonard. Hagler perhaps was the only fighter who could have fought Sugar Ray out of retirement. To his misfortune, he lost his title in his misdoings. Leonard who was the underdog going into the bout received an 11 million dollar paycheck. What it comes down to is Hagler was compared to a bull and Sugar Ray was compared to a matador, and like usual, the matador won.

HAGLER VS. LEONARD

Brian Bosworth is Oklahoma's All-American line backer that got attention both on and off the field.

TOP GUN

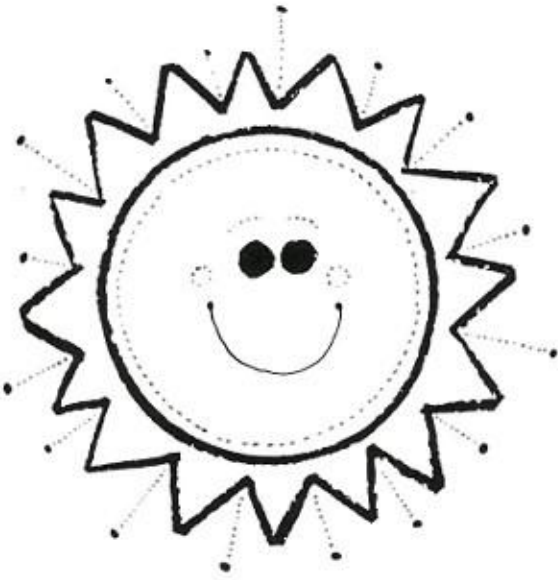

Top Gun is an exciting movie filled with action, romance, and suspense! With America's "Hunk," Tom Cruise and gorgeous Kelly McGills, Top Gun was a complete success.

Pee Wee has made a place for himself in show biz. He has his movie, "Pee Wee's Big Adventure," and now his own T.V. Show "Pee Wee's Playhouse."

Counting the AIDS Victims

ALF
Being from Melmack, Alf has become a popular character on his comedy hit series. He always watches television, loves to eat and would do anything to take a bite out of the cat, "Lucky."

SMILE if you

A warm, friendly reception.

Caught him on a good day.

Handsome for sure; genuine smile, not so sure.

A good day - Everyday!

This pair have reasons to love the Cobras.

As sweet as his smile.

"Let me talk, Ken!"

the COBRAS

THAT'S

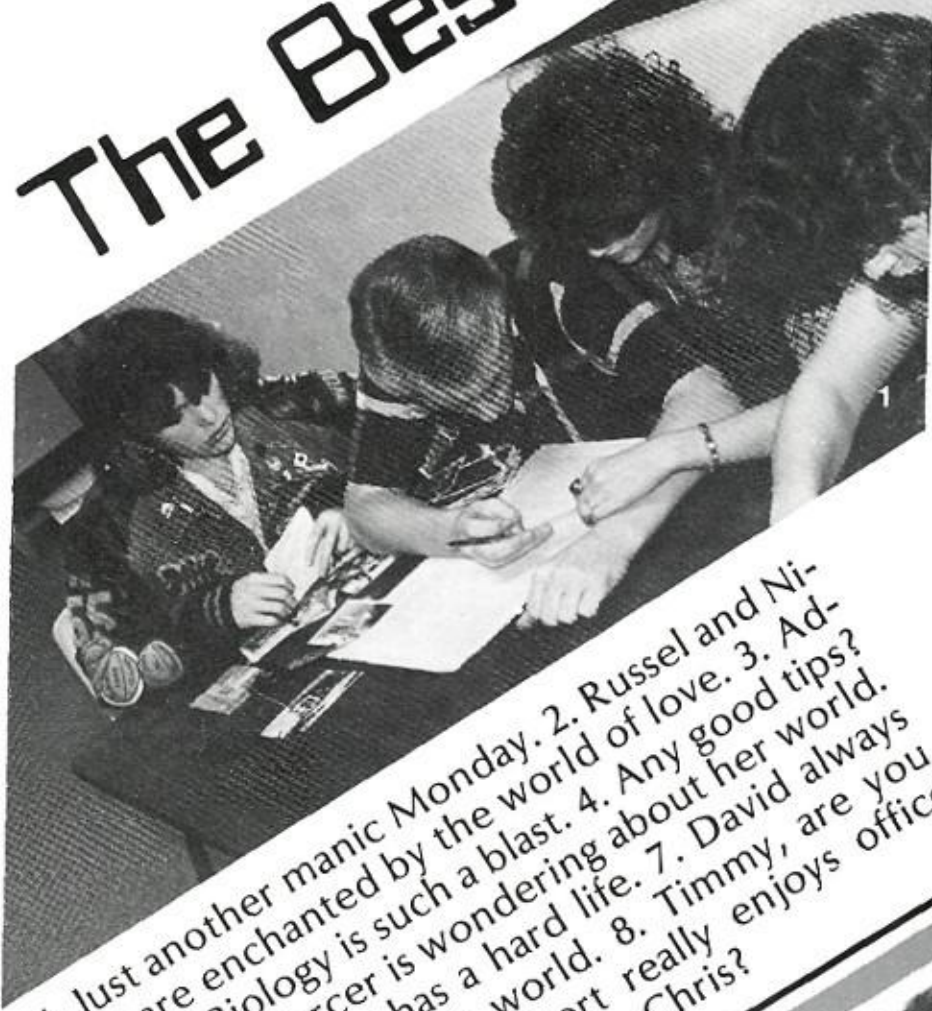

That's life! What's life? Who really knows? No two people live life the same. Everyone has different feelings and opinions toward life. Some like it wild and crazy, while others prefer to be calm.

1) John Howard gets a new look at life. 2) This is SO much fun. 3) Give me a Break! 4) Smile, Matthew! 5) John sure is happy! 6) Smiling Sophomores. 7) Cest La Vie! 8) Sandra takes her work seriously. 9) A first! Rhonda isn't talking.

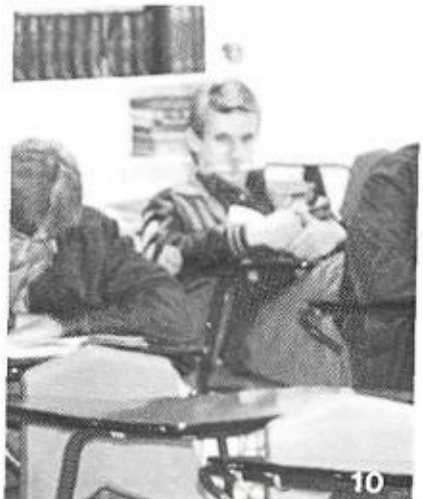

1) Life is so easy. 2) I'm so cute! 3) Deena messed up again! 4) Leave me alone! 5) Oh great! Another picture. 6) Life's hard without Brett! 7) Gary hasn't realized that he CAN'T move the lockers. 8) "DON'T TAKE MY PICTURE" Francy seems to be saying. 9) What'd ya do this time, Kelley?

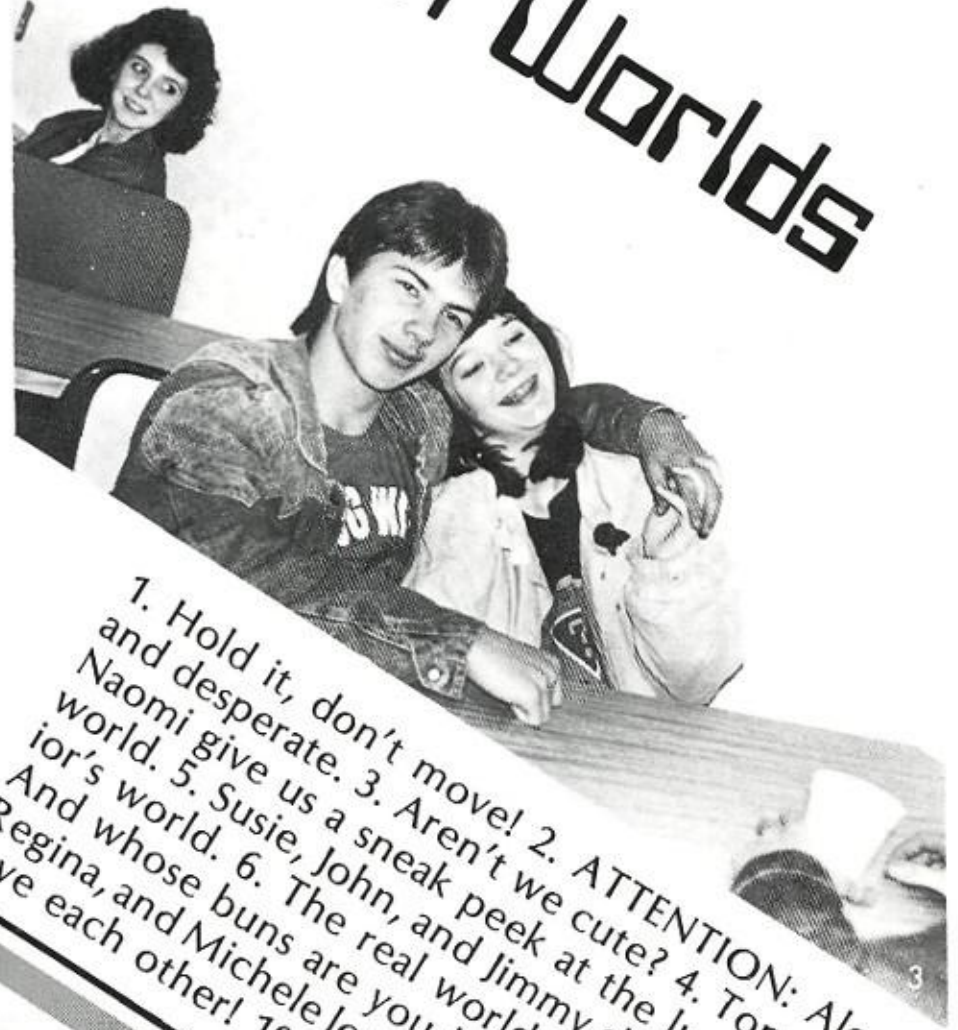

The Best Of

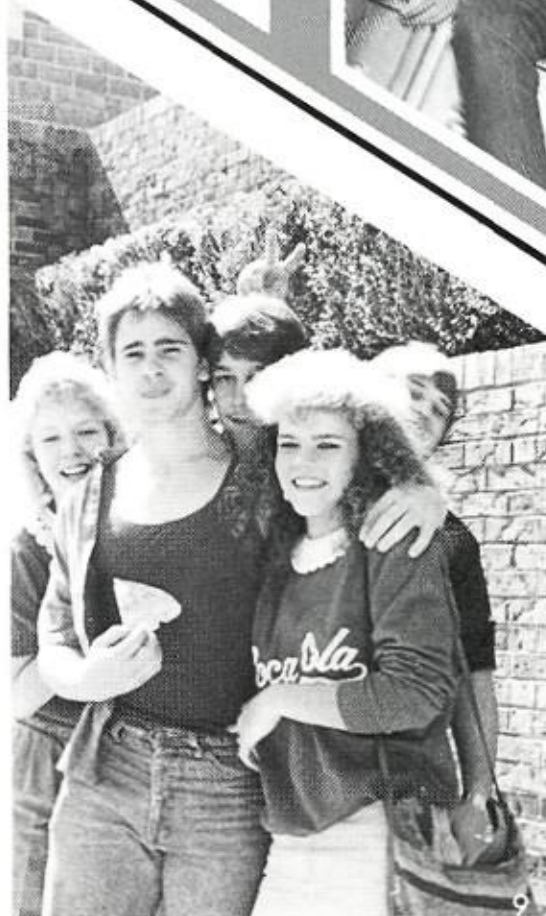

1. Just another manic Monday. 2. Russel and Nicole are enchanted by the world of love. 3. Advanced Biology is such a blast. 4. Any good tips? 5. Kelley Mercer is wondering about her world. 6. Spanish class has a hard life. 7. David always looks down on the world. 8. Timmy, are you nauseated? 9. Mrs. Short really enjoys office work. 10. Are you hungry, Chris?

Both Worlds

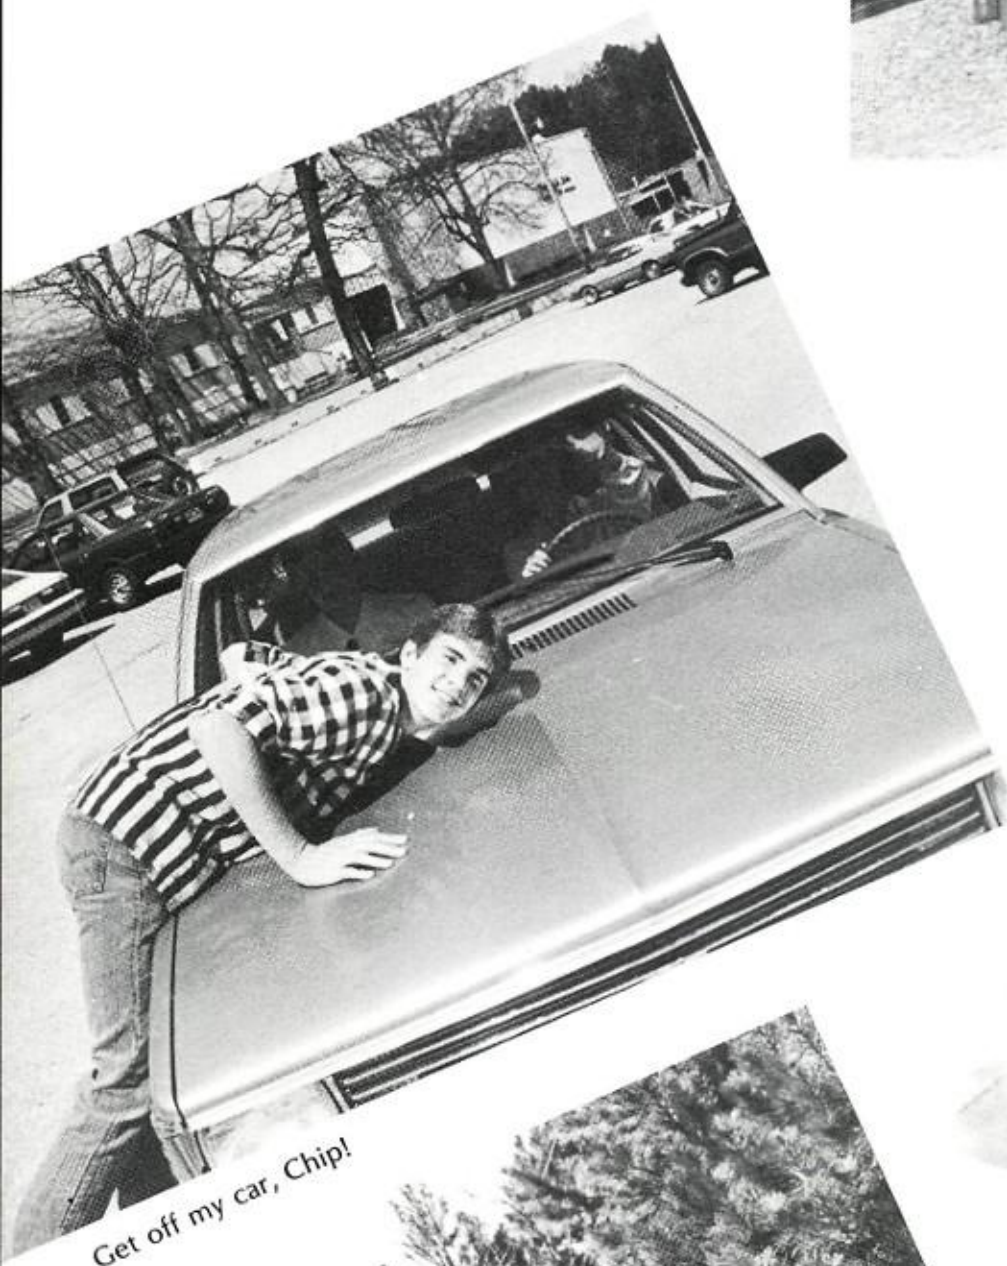

1. Hold it, don't move! 2. ATTENTION: Alone and desperate. 3. Aren't we cute? 4. Tonya and Naomi give us a sneak peek at the lunch room world. 5. Susie, John, and Jimmy show us a senior's world. 6. The real world of Geometry. 7. And whose buns are you looking at? 8. Travis, Regina, and Michele love the social world. 9. We love each other! 10. Gee, I'm having fun.

The Final Countdown

It's almost the end!

We're at the top now!

How much longer?

I'm ready and waiting!

Is it over yet?

When's our last day?

Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now

Take a look at tomorrow's leaders!

And now, for my next act . . .

We'll never stop smiling!

I'm so conceited!

Isn't my bunny pretty?

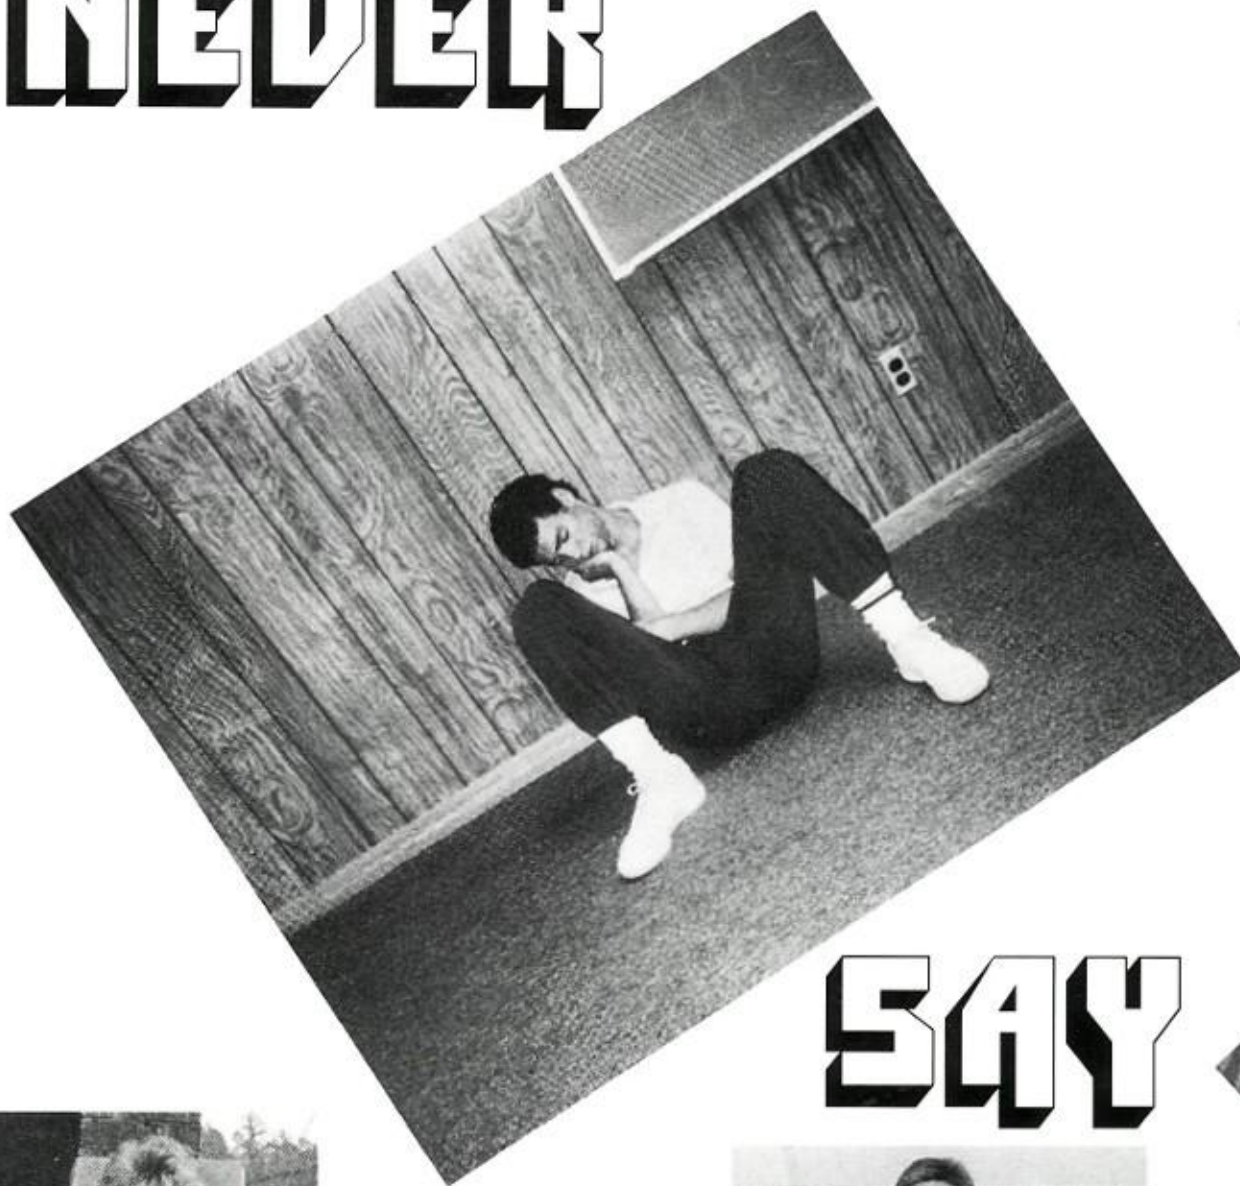

Which way do we go now?

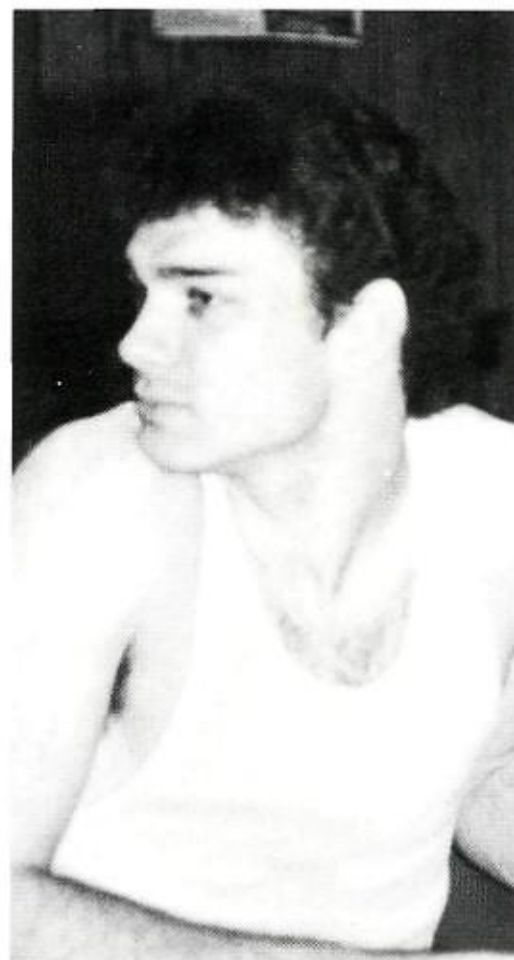

The dog ate my razor!

Nothing's gonna stop us from doing what we want to do!

NEVER

GOOD-BYE

The Seniors of 1987 are a special group of people. Each one is his/her own person. They all have different ideas about everything, including graduation. Most of the Seniors are ready to go out into the world of work, while others would rather stay in High School. Either way it goes, the class of 1987 will be deeply missed!

Suzanne Cavnor demonstrates her individuality during our alma mater.

INDIVIDUALS

No two students are alike. Each student has his/her own interests, talents and abilities. Lifestyles, as much as goals, distinguish the individual. This section attempts to capture each individual as him/herself expressing the various ranges of individuality we value.

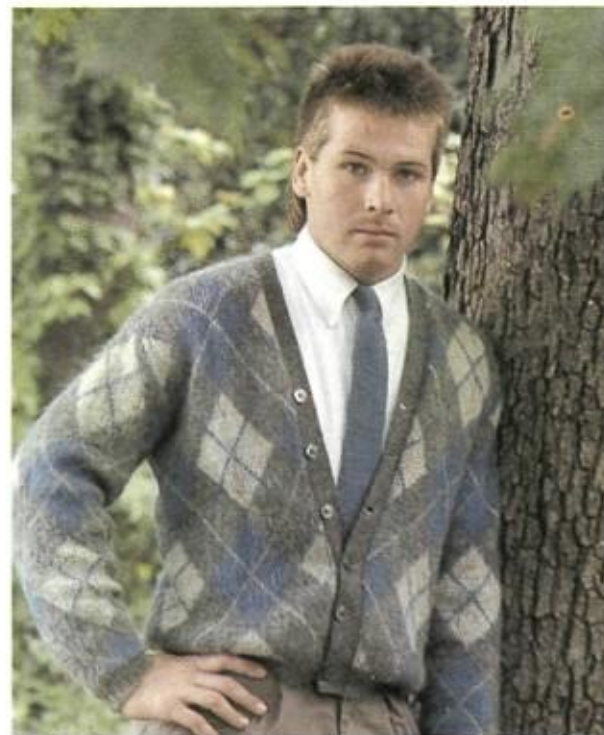

Saying goodbye – Saying hello!

The 1987 Seniors have not just let the past four years go by. We've worked hard and played hard and enjoyed every (well, maybe not "every") minute of it. Some folks say we can't claim to be "mature," but everyone agrees that we're young at heart.

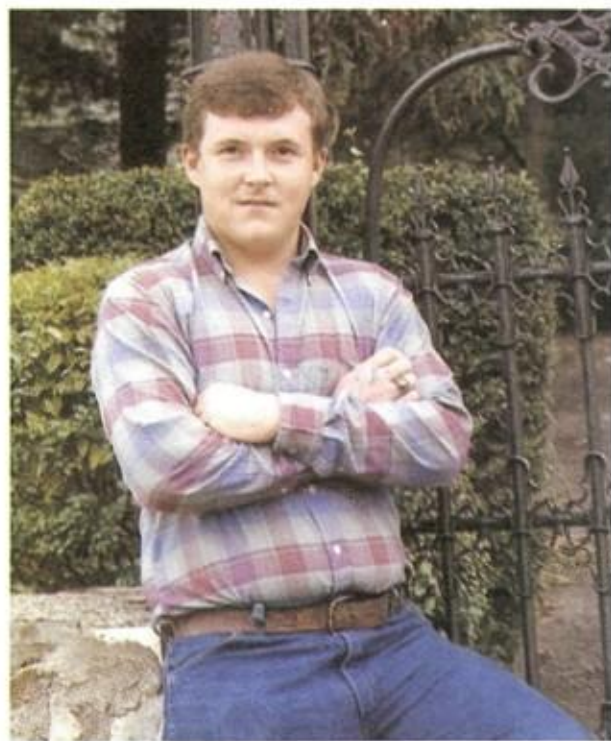

At this point, most of us don't claim to know the answers to the meaning of life, but we have a firm conviction that we can handle whatever comes our way.

We face the future with high hopes that the best is yet to come and the confidence that we are ready for it.

Farewell to Fountain Lake High School and a multitude of memories. Hello to new dreams and new challenges.

WILLS

I, Kurt Akman, will my skateboard to Steve Sisney.

I, Tim Bailey, will the ability to always have a can of Copenhagen to Darrick Hogue.

I, David Bain, being of dead mind and body, leave my body to science and my mind to science fiction. I leave all my worldly possessions to no one because I'm taking them with me.

I, David Beyer, will my ability of retaining my memory the next morning to Cory DeArmon.

I, Brian Breshears, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to George Breshears my bird so that he may have success in life.

I, Michelle Brooks, will my "Squatty" body and height to Jennifer Fuller.

I, Jenny Capps, will my ability to skip class, and not get caught to Jennifer Jones.

I, Matt Cassady, being of sound mind and body, will to Clay Hayes my ability to find and keep a job.

I, Tim Childress, leave my faith in God to handle any problem, my ability to keep patient, and most of all, my friendship to John Westerman and Jeff Fuller.

I, Todd Hornaday, will my ability to be white to Dempsey Rhodes.

I, Ronny Nobles being of sound mind and body will my ability to sing to Travis Brown.

I, Felicia Helms will Michele Merwine my ability to have a not-so-perfect attendance.

I, Jimmy Wyatt, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will Garrett Elmore my ability to find a good time.

I, Katrina Morgan, will Crystal Taber the ability to hang on to a good thing when she's got it.

I, Shannon Hunnicutt will to Rhonda Smith my ability to make it to school on time and my ability to keep my mouth shut in class.

I, Gary "Brute" Jackson, being of perverted mind and body, do hereby bequeath my ability to skip class without getting caught, my artistic ability, and my job at Burger King to Todd Ashley.

I, Darrell James, being of sound body and soul, will to Dempsey Rhodes my rock-n-roll.

I, Trina Koller, will Jennifer Dilatush the secret of McDonalds and Lance Church and Danny Beyer a box of Crunch Berries.

I, Holly Koller, will to Jeannie Rigsby my fair complexion and my "WHITE LEGS!"

I, Georgia Robinson, will to Regina Truett my ability to play well in band.

I, Beth Needham, will Angy Richardson the ability to convince Jon to make a decision to buy her a ring instead of a boat.

I, John Watson, being of sound or halfway sound mind and body; will to my good friends, Dan Beyer, Jim Kaatz, Cory DeArmon, and Dempsey Rhodes my ability to raise caine and to make the school year of '88 miserable for the teachers and all of school faculty. I also will them the ability to party as much as possible, because the year will go faster than you think.

I, Susie Hickman, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to set good examples on the cheerleading team to Shari Wyatt and to Jennifer Dilatush, my ability to be an airhead.

I, Shelley Shaw, will my ability to get a tan to Shari Wyatt.

I, Laurie Landreth, will my ability to play center on the basketball team to Jennifer Ralston.

I, Tracie Fields, will my smart mouth to anyone who can't speak up for themselves.

I, Tammy Fleming, will to Kendra Harrington my ability to tell a guy that she likes him instead of putting notes in his locker.

I, Jimmy Garner, will to Danny Beyer my ability to play a football game without injuries.

I, Rhonda Loy, will to Lori Willis and Angy Richardson my ability to keep my sanity after having everyone's job in Journalism dumped on me.

I, Clayton Rynders, will to Garrett Elmore the meat on my bones.

I, Robert Teal, will my ability to play golf to Daniel Jeffrees.

I, Mark Young, will my Nickname "Booger" to Travis Brown and my ability to play basketball to Jeff Fuller.

I, Troy Garner will my expensive shoulderpads to Danny Beyer.

I, Scott Vaughn, will my ability to drive to Cory DeArmon.

I, Matt Vaughn, will Michele Merwine my ability to sleep in class and still pass.

I, Mandy Wendland, will my ability to get my driver's license to Marissa Metcalf and my ability to get along with everyone to anyone who needs it.

I, Leann Turner, will the ability to be a happily married Senior to Karla Sharp.

I, Wayne Ledbetter, will my job at Capones to Dan Beyer.

I, Angela Michau, being of sound mind and single status, will my uncanny ability to fall in love with older, rich guys from other schools, to Jennifer Dilatush. I will my good looks first period to Angy Richardson and my "seaweed" eyes to Travis Brown to go with his red hair.

I, Kelley Mercer, will Jennifer Dilatush the ability to work in the office 1st period and be on time.

I, Tina Newingham, will to Gena McBee, my ability to not get mad at anyone at the least little remark.

I, Kathy Robertson, will my white silk nighty to Karen Herrick for all her good times to come.

I, Robbie Hendrix, being of sound mind and body, will to Mike Sisney enough class to own a Camaro instead of a generic imitation.

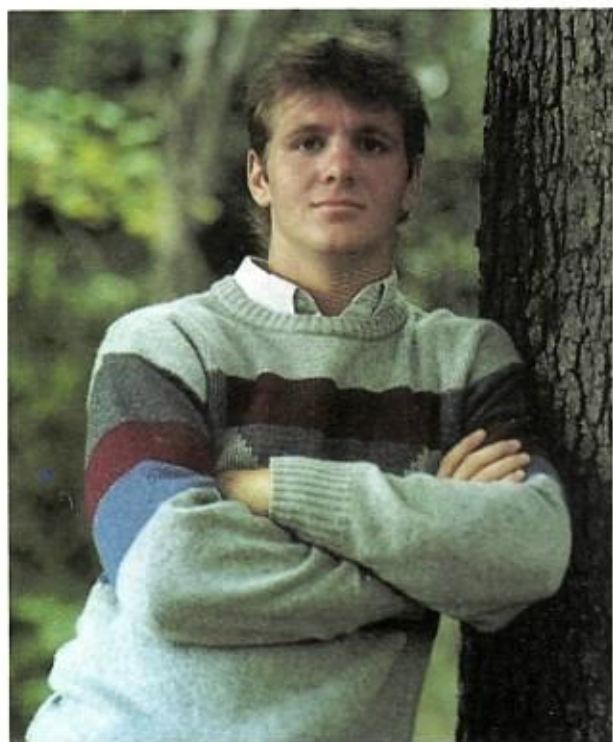

I, Brett Graves, will Cory DeArmon my good looks and big muscles.

I, Jennifer Tillery, will to Scott Reese my good grades and to Lori Willis my volleyball abilities.

SENIORITIS!

Senioritis: (sen-

disease that inflicts graduating seniors.
Symptoms: lack of concentration, lack of motivation,
neurotic behavior.

LIFE AS A JUNIOR!

We thought it was easy,
boy, were we wrong!

But that's okay;
we're moving along.

The day's move faster;
time does fly;

Graduation's getting closer,
we'll probably cry.

We'll miss each other,
I guess that's true,

And all because of the things

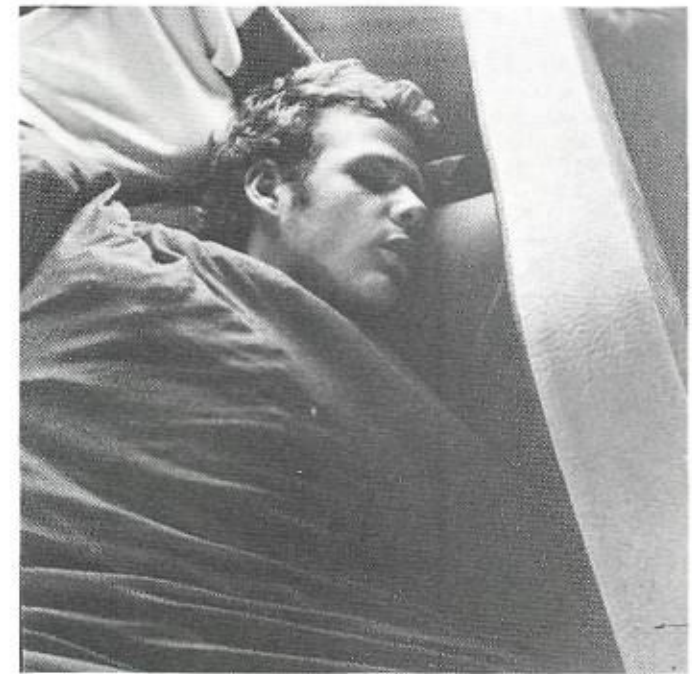

we've been through!!

So the best thing to do is make it last,

And give each other things to remember from the past!!

ONE MORE YEAR TO GO!

The Junior Class is growing and maturing in many different ways. But one thing most of them agree on is how they feel about having one more year of school left. When asked about this, the Juniors gave some very interesting replies.

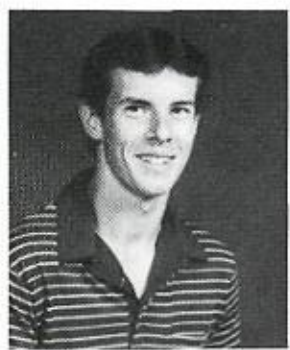

Angy Richardson says that it's going to be very sad leaving 12 years of the best memories of her life. Another reply we received was, "it's like an Era Ending!" I'm sure the Juniors agree. But of course we said "most" of them agree. "You can't hold on to everything! We still have a year left to make memories, so go for it!"

Going from Junior High to Senior High was a big step for the tenth grade. The big step brought on many challenges and new experiences.

The Sophomores got involved in school activities ranging from homecoming to Bear Wrestling.

This class is very smart and being inducted in Senior Beta Club was a high point of their year. They are also active members of several organizations such as, FFA, FHA, FBLA, and FCA.

When asked the difference between Junior and Senior High, Doug Tillery said, "Last year we were top dog; now we're at the bottom of the heap." Chris Poston didn't think there was much of a change.

In all, the Sophomore class has proved to be a smart, fun, class.

Miss Fountain Lake 1987: Heather Hansen.

The seventh annual Miss Fountain Lake pageant was held March 21, 1987 in the Fountain Lake Cafetorium. The theme was "The Best of Times." The emcees for the pageant were Ronny Nobles and Angy Richardson.

This year Fountain Lake had two special guests, Tina Richardson and Angela Michau. Tina is the reigning Miss Henderson State University, and Angela is the Hot Springs Junior Miss. The girls all agreed that this pageant was one of the best ever. Everyone really enjoyed it. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Russ organized the pageant.

As the tension was rising and everyone was in suspense, Heather Hansen was crowned Miss Fountain Lake. Heather, we are very proud of you!

ATHLETICS

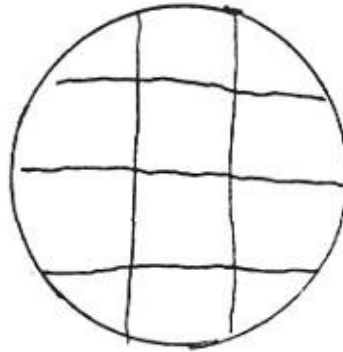

The Basketball Achievers: David Beyer; all district, all region, and slam dunk champion. Ronny Nobles; all district. Girls: Vicki Blake; all district & Tamra Speers; all district.

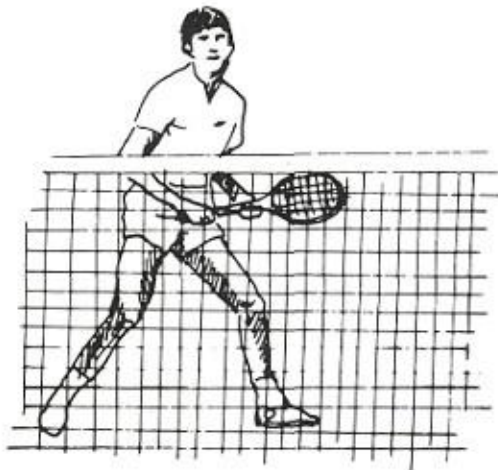

The Athletic Department, which consists of Basketball, Football, Volleyball, Tennis, and Track, was a success this year. There were many students involved in each sport. Some excelled more than others and made All District. We are very proud of the Fountain Lake Athletic Program.

The Football Achievers: Brett Graves, Scott Vaughn, Dan Beyer; all district & Troy Garner; all district & all State.

The Volleyball Achiever was Vicki Blake. She was the only Volleyball player to make all district this year. Vicki played well.

The Tennis Achievers (Girls): Regina Truett & Shari Wyatt; 2nd flight doubles runners-up at SAU. (Boys): David Sutter & Chip Pike; 2nd flight doubles runners-up & Jimmy Garner; 12th grade singles runner-up.

ATHLETICS

The Track Teams achieved many goals this year. They had fun working together as a team and also working individually. They placed high in The Panther & Lion relays and in many other Track Meets. The Track Teams worked hard all year and were very successful.

Trina Koller received the Berle Anthony Award.

John Westerman attended the Hugh O'Brien Leadership Conference. Michele Merwine attended a National Conference in Washington D.C.

Michele Merwine and Angy Richardson received the Woodman of the World Award. Angy also attended the Nat'l. Inst. on Coop. Ed. in Knoxville, TN.

Matt Dickson was selected for the All-State Band.

These students made All-Region in band. Not pictured are Tamra Speers, Dawn Ragsdale, and Travis Brown who made All-Region Choir.

Tim Childress & Mandy Wendland received Art Scholarships to GCCC.

Kelley Mercer, pictured with State Officer Marc Harris, attended the FFA Washington Conference Program in Washington, D.C.

Angy Richardson was the Garland County Fair Queen. She was also selected Miss Congeniality at the District Contest in Hope.

Angela Michau was the Hot Springs Jr. Miss. She received a $500 scholarship.

Ms. Travis escorts Ms. Gladden to be auctioned off during our annual "slave day."

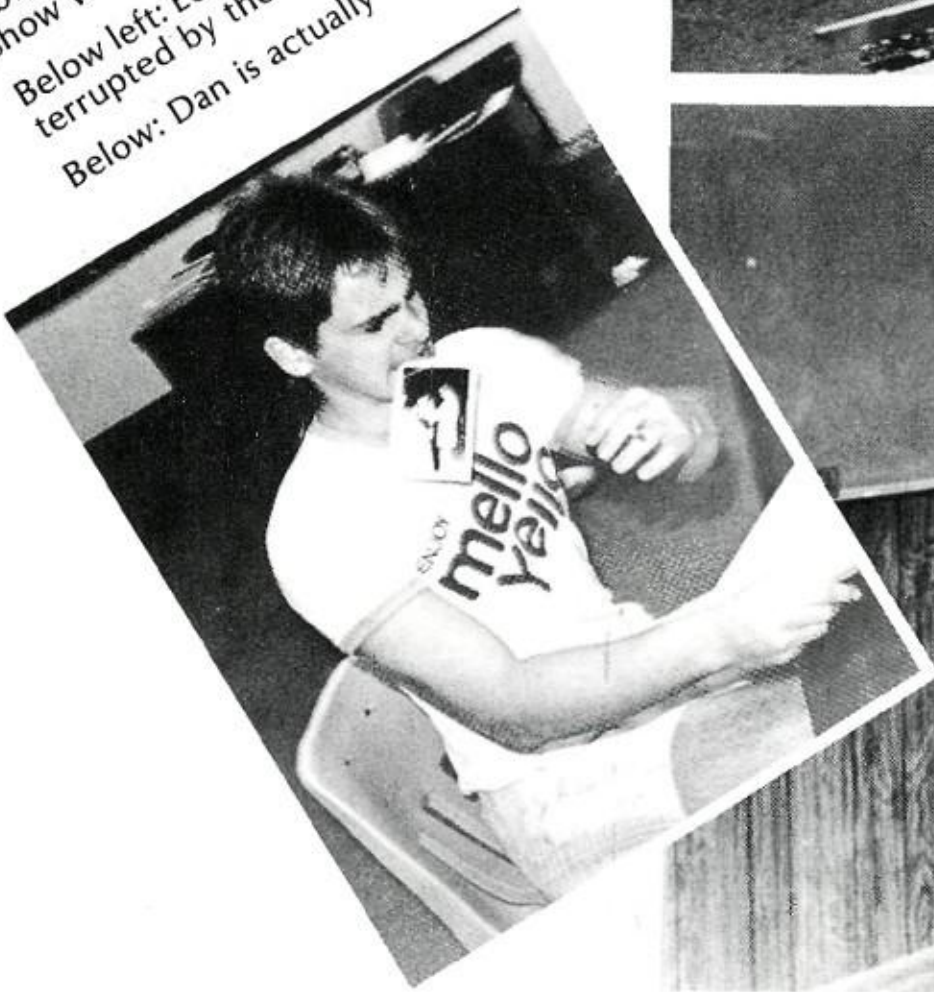

EXTRACURRICULAR

When you think of school, you think of English, biology, and math, but there is more. There is an extracurricular activity to suit every personality. From basketball and football, to tennis and track, athletics suit the physically minded personalities, while clubs and social activities suit those interested in people looking to the future. To sum it up, extra curricular activities allow students to expand their horizons, challenge their intellect, and focus on developing good communications with their peers.

JOURNALISM

The Untold Story

Journalism: The untold story. In the opening nine weeks of journalism we set a goal of putting together a yearbook that would fulfill everyone's expectations. We all found out very quickly what the word "teamwork" meant. Some of us had to decide if we were really ready to take on the responsibility. Several dropped out at semester. Now looking back on the year we can see all the members of the staff that endured as family — a family that survived the selling of ads, the decisions of layout styles, and the stress of errors and making deadlines. Now, don't get the wrong idea: all the times were not on friendly terms; so if you feel you have creativity, responsibility and just plain control, take journalism and help make another chapter of the untold story.

After semester, there were sixteen of us: (from the top) Tim, Trina, David, Dan, Corey, Angy, Mrs. Russ, Regina, Lori, Kelli, Brett, Beth, Rhonda, Kelley, Sandra, and Tina.

BETA CLUB

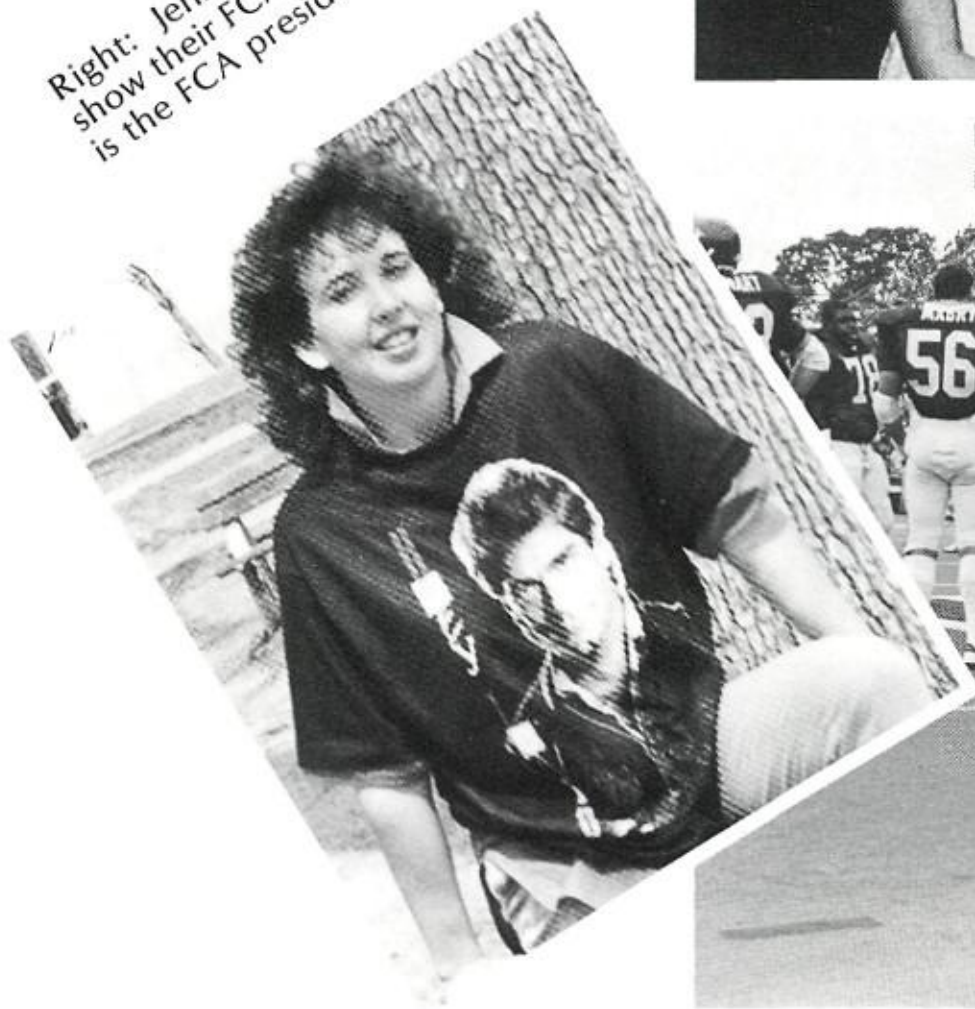

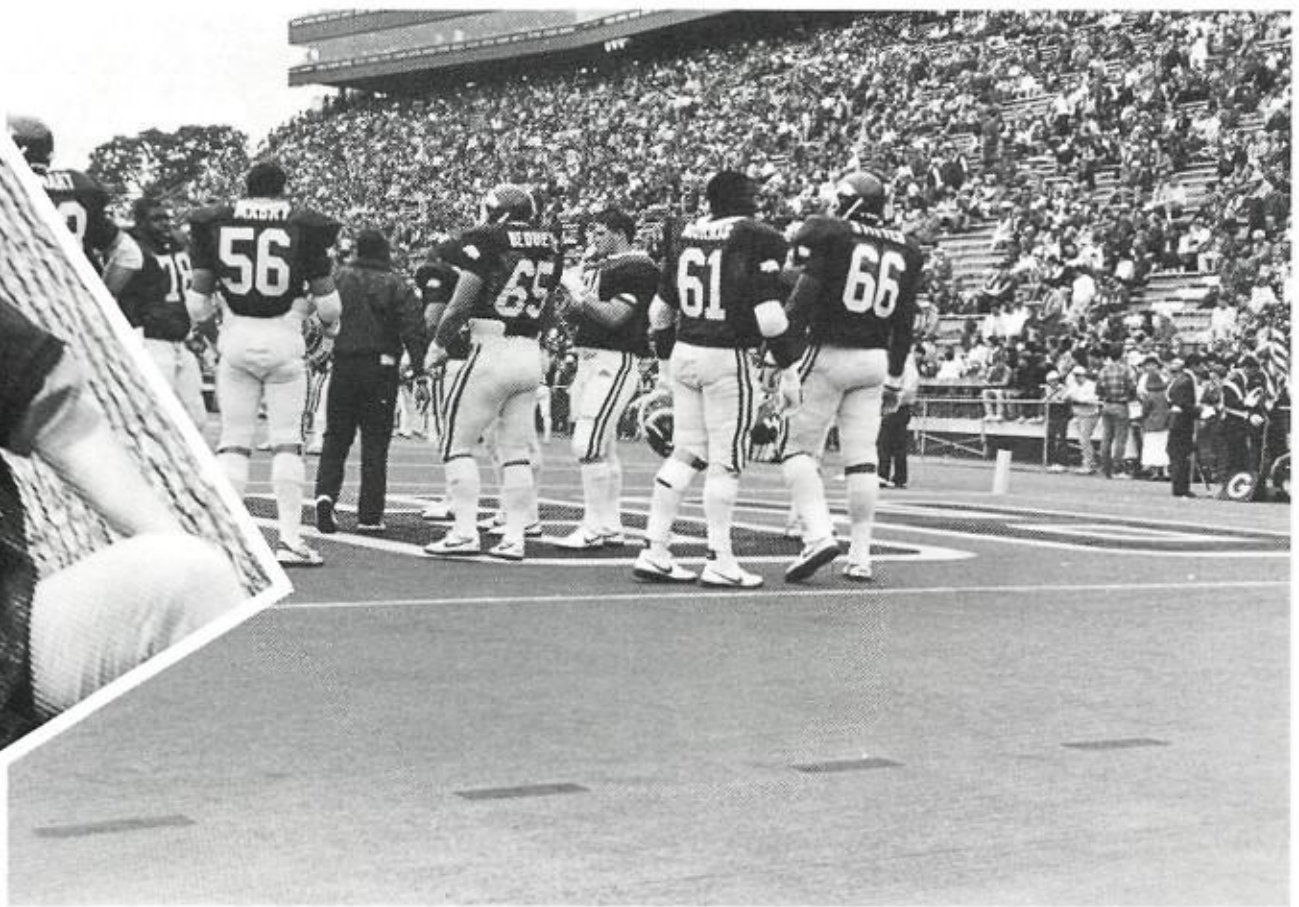

Ten of the thirty-one members in this year's Beta Club are seniors. Sixteen new members were inducted in March. The club's projects include a community and school service. Highlight of the year is the state convention in Little Rock.

FCA

More than an athletic club.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is more than an athletic club. FCA allows students to fellowship with other Christians and to develop spiritual strength that helps guide them through situations faced as an athlete and as a student.

This past summer six members attended the summer conference held in North Carolina. Ronny Nobles and Jack Vaughn attended Mars Hill, North Carolina boys camp and Michele Merwine, Trina Koller, Tammy Vaughn, and Becky Sears attended Black Mountain, North Carolina girls camp along with several members of the Lake Hamilton Chapter. All agree that it was one of the best and most influential weeks of their lives.

A tradition for the Fountain Lake FCA is traveling to Fayetteville for FCA day at the University of Arkansas. This includes a program of Christian speakers and entertainment, lunch, and tickets to the football game. This year although Arkansas lost to Texas Tech, the large number of members who went made it an enjoyable day and a successful trip.

As we have all seen, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes is more than just an athletic club. It is a group of friends who choose to fellowship with other Christians and share the excitement and wonder of being a Christian.

FHA

"Catch A Star"

Each year the Future Homemakers of America adopt a new theme to use throughout the year in the numerous activities they sponsor. The 1986-87 theme is "Catch A Star." Chosen because it signifies the potential of the club members, "Catch A Star" has developed into a goal. It is the goal of FHA members to use the knowledge and abilities they have received to become a "star" in their own future.

Activities that helped reach toward this new goal were selling projects including cookbooks, mugs, faculty Valentines and the Parent/Member Banquet.

The selling projects help to develop responsibility and abilities that will be useful throughout life.

On Valentines Day the FHA delivered Valentines and the traditional apple to each senior high faculty member.

The end of each year brings the Parent/Member Banquet, a tradition that every member looks forward to. This year the Parent/Member Banquet was held at Buffy's Buffet on Central Avenue in Hot Springs. It was the first time to be held off-campus and was a huge success, thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Martha Rice, the FHA advisor.

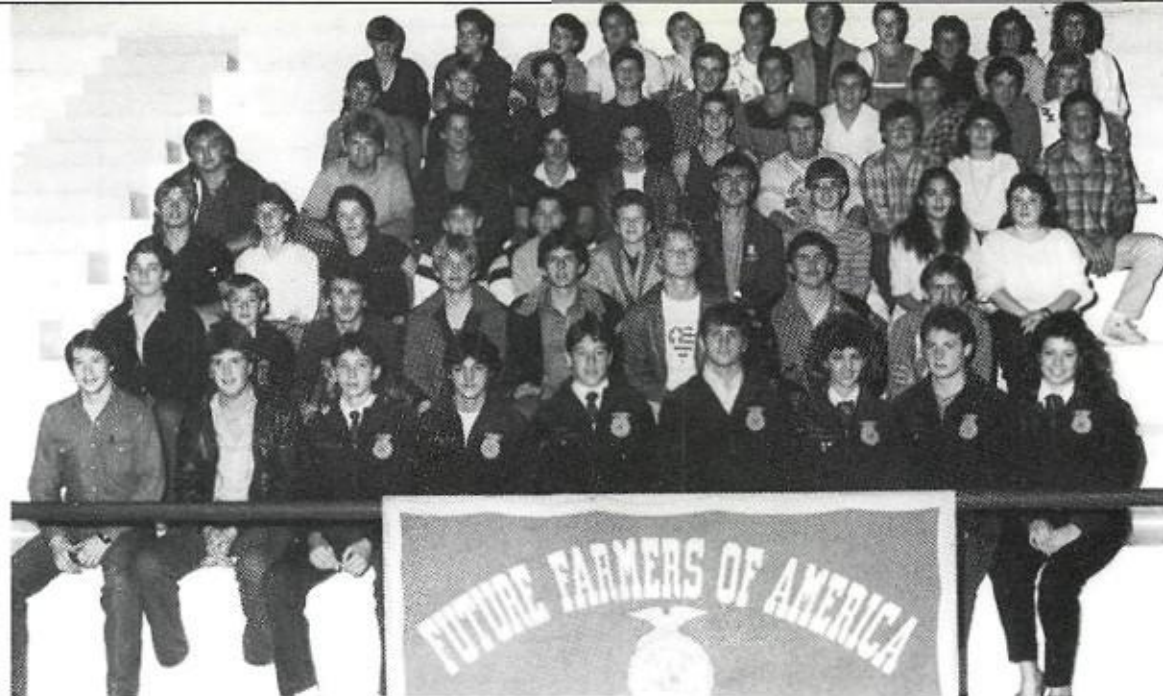

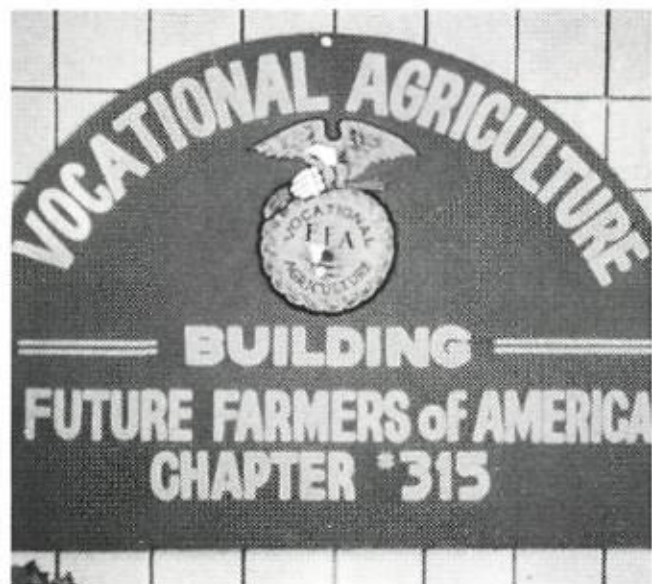

All who know Mrs. Rice, know that she is a truly remarkable person whose dedication and love each year really make a difference in all that we do.

Future Farmers of America

In 1986-87 the Fountain Lake F.F.A. Chapter had another exciting year. Bruce Westerman was elected State President for the Arkansas Association, the first from our chapter to be elected to this position. Attending the State Convention along with Bruce were: Dannie Loy, Joe Partain, Doug Tillery, Angy Richardson, and John Westerman. Shortly after State Convention, several members attended State Leadership Camp. The summer was busy for Kelley Mercer and Angy Richardson. Besides State Convention and Leadership Camp, Kelley spent a week at the Washington D.C. Conference Program. Mike and Steve Sisney and Angy Richardson attended State Co-op Camp. Angy was chosen to spend another week at the National Institute on Cooperative Education (NICE) in Knoxville, TN. Darren Dauber, John Westerman, Mike Sisney, and Mr. Pennington also attended Recreational Camp. The end of the summer was just the beginning for our new Agriculture Instructor, Jim Pennington and our F.F.A. members as we departed from our former instructor and friend, Albert McCain. The fairs kept the Chapter busy from August to October as we were well represented in the Saline, Garland, and State Fairs. During November Kelley and Angy attended National Convention in Kansas City, MO, along with Mr. Pennington and Mrs. Mercer. Also during this time, our chapter fruit sale was being conducted and we exceeded our goal.

We also exceeded our goal for the State Foundation Drive and inducted twenty-four greenhands into our chapter. In March, we participated in the Sub-Area Parliamentary and Speaking Contests, and attended district judging contests.

Our chapter banquet topped off an exciting year and we look forward to the beginning of a new year in the great organization of the Future Farmers of America.

Future Business Leaders

Business with class

Renee Morrison didn't quite know what to expect on her first day as a F.L. Faculty member. As the year progressed she found teaching to be an exciting and rewarding career. Mrs. Morrison has the rare gift of understanding her students which makes teaching much easier.

F.L. was well represented at the District F.B.L.A. Contests at Henderson State University. Although no one placed high enough to go to the state competition, everyone had a great time. They learned to handle themselves under competition. These contests also instilled self-confidence and leadership abilities.

As the year drew to an end, students realized how beneficial being a member of F.B.L.A. can be. The Seniors of 1987 would like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Morrison for her undying devotion, and wish the best of luck to future F.B.L.A. members.

Reflection of the 50's

Innovative! That best describes the Speech and Drama Club this year. Speaking to a variety of age levels was a challenge that brought its own rewards. The elementary classes enjoyed our Halloween skits for which we created our own costumes. We even wrote our own script for our one-act play, Reflections of the 50's, which was well received by our community. The world of theater has opened new awareness of expressions, learning, and enjoyment. It has shown us that our hard work and hours of practice lead to a better understanding of ourselves and a richer quality of life!

Fountain Lake students who go to the Vo-Tech School have an opportunity to combine academics with a practical skill. Emphasis at Quapaw is hands-on experience.

The classes are open to all high school juniors and seniors. Post secondary courses are available for students who have graduated.

Back row L. to R. - Coach Utley, Jimmy Garner, Troy Garner, Will Williams, Garrick Hogue. Kneeling: Donald Beard, Jack Vaughn.

The Senior Boys' Track Team may have been small, but their determination was big. The team consisted of 6 members; 5 seniors: Jimmy Garner, Troy Garner, Garrick Hogue, Donald Beard and Jack Vaughn, and one Sophomore, Will Williams. They gave it their all and had a very good season.

Sr. Girls' Track

This was a good year for the girls' tennis team consisting of Juniors, Sophomores, and a Freshman. Although they were a young, inexperienced team, they accomplished what was expected and more. The Juniors are Michele, Regina, and Shari; Sophomores are Darlene, DaVone, Heather, Becky, and Suzy; Freshman, Shelley.

The outcome at SAU was a surprise to everyone, even Coach Hines. Shari and Regina were finalists in the No. 2 flight of doubles. Darlene and Shelley, DaVone and Suzy lost in the semifinals of No. 1 and No. 3 flights of doubles. Shari lost in the 11th grade singles semifinals. Over all, the team came in third behind Vermillion Catholic and Rayville. At the 5AA South District Tournament Shari made it to the singles semifinals; Shelley and Darlene, Davone and Suzy made it to the doubles semifinals. The team came in third.

Coach Hines has helped each one through each event. Without her moral support, dedication - and last, but not least - patience, they wouldn't have gone as far as they did.

With all the experience they have gained this year, one cannot begin to imagine what the 1987-88 year holds.

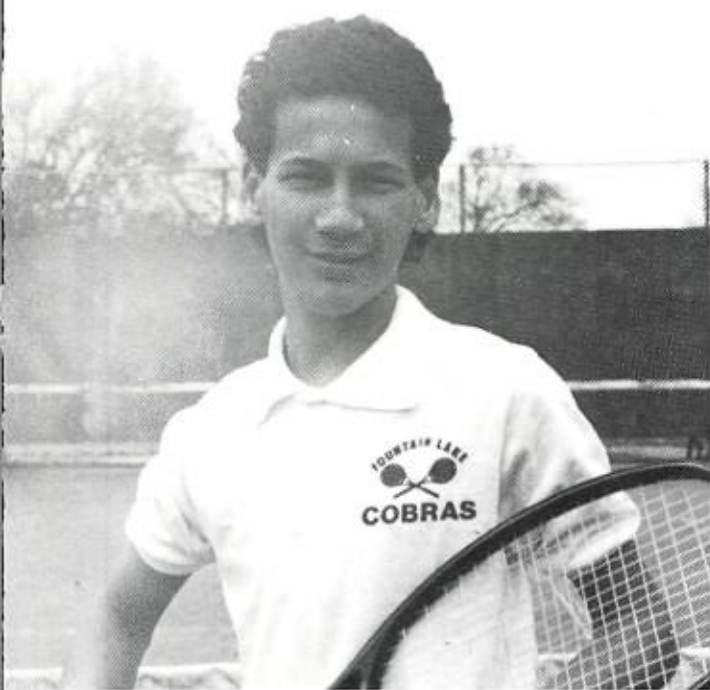

"Get out here and hit twenty forehands!"

Jared Ware is the 1986 16 yr. old State Junior Vice Champion.

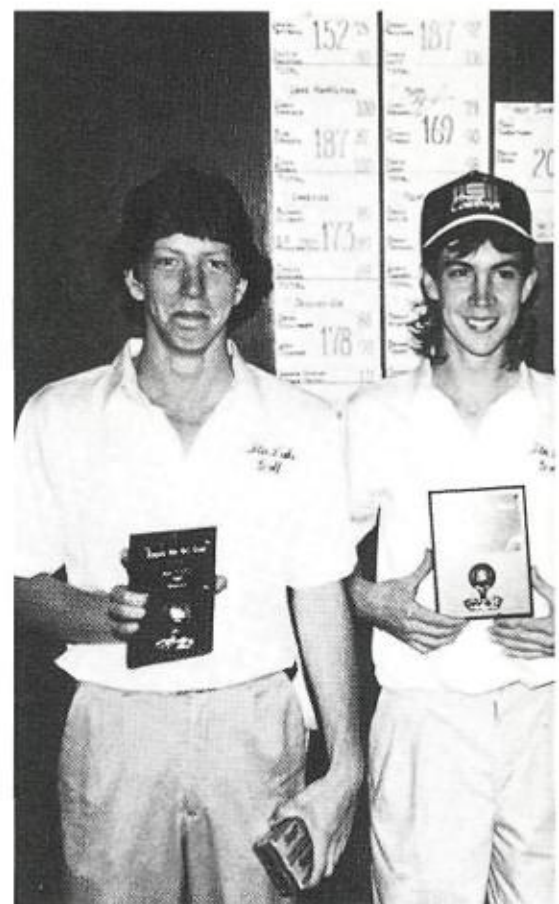

This year, the Fountain Lake Sr. Boys' team has accomplished more than was expected of them. Some experienced members of the team had to give tennis up, leaving it with young but dedicated players. There was only one senior, Jimmy Garner, along with juniors David Sutter, Todd Ashley and Mark Wilson. The Sophomores included Jared Ware, Chip Pike, Scott Lampinen and Joe Partain. At SAU, Jimmy Garner was runner-up in the 12th grade singles division. Chip and Mark were runners-up in the 3rd Flight Doubles.

At the 5AA South District Tournament, the team brought home the title. Jared Ware, who sat out most of the season because of a knee injury, came back and won the singles division, defeating Jimmy in the finals. Chip and David finished second in the doubles division. Mrs. Hines did a tremendous job with the Sr. Boys' this year, and one can hold high expectations for this group next season.

They would like to thank Fred Serret for the use of Belvedere for our home matches.

Ninth Grade

"The New Beginning"

This elite group of ninth graders are just beginning the four-year battle through high school. But they know the freshman year can be "one of the toughest." They are having a hard time getting used to credits and the fact that failing a course means repeating that course. New teachers and new courses are a big adjustment, too.

The freshmen year is the year when popularity becomes all-important. Freshmen are consumed with what's in and what's not. Reeboks, Levis, I.D. shirts and the kind of cars they will be driving in two years are more important than doing assignments and passing tests.

Things that were important last year seem insignificant now, and things that are important now won't matter next year.

A common complaint among ninth graders is "Too much homework." It's much more than they had last year and they're afraid there will be even more next year.

Freshmen face the future with mixed feelings of anticipation and apprehension.

EIGHTH GRADE & NEW EXPERIENCES

In addition to the basic four there are now art, computer, and career classes for the eighth graders. They can learn eye and hand coordination in art, working with machines in computers, and something about what they want to do in careers. With all this and more, they can decide on their careers.

When eighth graders were asked what they liked, there were several different answers. Robby Goodeaux likes the opposite sex, a night on the town, football, basketball, and last, but not least, friends. All Tereasa Hollis had to say was "parties!"

This class of 1991 have their whole lives ahead of them. They can dream their dreams, but they know that dreams aren't everything.

Seventh Grade

It's a new world for seventh graders. Changing classes every hour, with only five minutes to get to your locker and go to another building . . . who said junior high was fun? Teachers expect you to be on time, to bring paper, pens, and the right books to class. In elementary, the teachers knew all about you; it takes some of these teachers two weeks just to remember your name. And just when you figure out what's going on, it's time to move from Careers to Computers or from Music to Health.

From a teacher's point of view, there's no such thing as a "typical" seventh grader. One day they are loving and cooperative, and another day, they're hostile or pouting.

They're the television generation, and they tend not to hear what they don't see. But when they really believe in something — or someone — they'll give it (or him or her) their very best.

ELEMENTARY

A dream begins. Elementary school is the beginning of education for the future doctors, teachers, and sports stars of tomorrow. It is here that the idea of success evolves into a lifetime goal. Some will achieve their goals; some will not; but the values and principles that are acquired in elementary school will follow them throughout their lives.

The self-contained class is special. Each student is different. They all have different goals and different things to strive for in life. They put their all into everything they do. They work hard to accomplish their many tasks. The self-contained is also able to participate in the Special Olympics. In the Special Olympics they get to show off their physical ability and have lots of fun. The self-contained class has a great deal to look forward to and a bright future.

Kindergarten

A new life with no more cartoons at home — new adventure and new excitement. This is a major change in a young child's life.

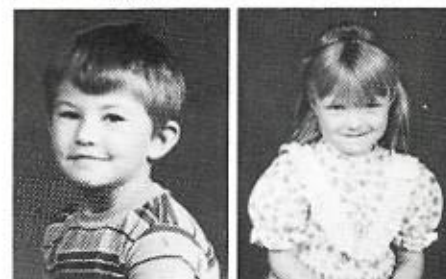

This year's kindergarteners enjoy recess and coloring, but they dislike taking naps. The most frightening thing about being in kindergarten is getting your name on the board.

This graduating class of 1999 looks promising. They enjoy learning and look forward to becoming first graders.

FIRST GRADE

Learning is fun in First Grade. We learn to read, write, add, and subtract.

Learning centers are a highlight of first grade at Fountain Lake. Students explore a letter of the alphabet each week through hands-on experiences. Basic skills such as reading, writing, spelling, and math are reinforced, as well as Science and Social Studies.

A fun event in first grade was "Disney Day." We celebrated Walt Disney's birthday by wearing mouse ears, reading Disney's books, watching a Donald Duck movie, and eating mouse ice cream pops. It's a day the children will not soon forget.

SECOND GRADE

Los ninos aprenden Espanol

(The children learn Spanish.)

This is Spanish II's second year to work with the second grade students. The Elementary students really enjoy learning Christmas songs in Spanish. "'Deck the Halls' is my favorite," said Bobby Furr. Another class's favorite song was "Ten little Indians." When asked the hardest words they have learned, the majority agreed that the numbers were the easiest, especially for Ms. Bilo's class who counted to ten.

Spanish II is doing an excellent job with the second grade and should be commended. The high school students working with the elementary help their children to increase their vocabulary and better understand the Spanish language.

Third Grade

"A GROWING EXPERIENCE!"

Many people think being a third grader is all fun and games, but it's not. When you start the third grade, you start preparing for harder grades.

There are many new things that third grade students must learn. They learn to write in cursive and they also learn to do division problems. Many third graders are not prepared for the harder work assignments. Therefore they have to study longer and harder on their own. The third grade, in other words, is "a growing experience!"

Fourth Grade: One-Third of the Way There

The fourth graders seemed to enjoy their classes this year, with only eight more years to go before they graduate in 1995.

When asked what they thought the world might be like when they graduate, they had these answers: some said it would probably be like something out of a Star Wars movie. Others said a lot of things would be run by computers and there wouldn't be much for "humans" to do. Several of the boys, when asked what they would like to do instead of going to class, said they would rather be playing soccer or softball.

Fifth Grade

"Excelling Expectations"

From sports to academic achievements, the fifth grade students are excelling expectations. When speaking with young ball players, we found that they most enjoyed participating in the games. After watching these enthusiastic ball players, we see great potential for the upcoming years.

Never missing a beat, they move from the basketball court to the classroom. Many students go three times a week to participate in the Gifted and Talented Program. When asked what her favorite part of the program was, Melissa Howard replied, "Starting a newspaper for K-6". A fellow classmate preferred "brainstorming."

Sixth Grade

Ready For Junior High

The sixth grade kids this year really do like and are enjoying the new elementary building. But, they are very ready to get out of elementary and into Junior High.

They have done a lot of projects this year. They built a castle in Social Studies in Mrs. Stroud's class. They did reports on ancient Egypt, Greek and Roman Gods as well.

All in all, this class is very ready to make the change to Junior High.

SUSIE:

One day at a time - this is enough
Do not look back and grieve over
The past,
For it is gone; and do not be
Troubled over the future,
For it has yet to come.

Live in the present and make it so beautiful that it will be worth remembering.

We're so proud of you

*We love you, Mom, Dad
Dannie, Dannielle & Cheyenne.*

*Ah! what would the world be to us,
If the children were no more?
We should dread the desert behind us
Worse than the dark before.
What the leaves are to the forest,
With light and air for food,
Ere their sweet and tender juices
Have been hardened into wood,
That to the world are children:
Through them it feels the glow
Of a brighter and sunnier climate
Than reaches the trunks below.
Come to me, O ye children!
And whisper in my ear
What the birds and the winds are singing
In your sunny atmosphere.
For what are all our contrivings,
And the wisdom of our books,
When compared with your caresses,
And the gladness of your looks?
Ye are better than all the ballads
That ever were sung or said;
For ye are living poems,
And all the rest are dead.*

*Dear Tim,
Congratulations! We are so proud of you. Hope the future is as happy for you as you have made Dad and me in the past.
God Bless you.
